

Title: European Vocational Skills Week 2020

European Vocational Skills Week occurs every year as a chance for local, regional and national organisations to showcase the best of Vocational Education and Training (VET).

As part of the week, the VET Excellence Awards will also take place, a chance for organisations to showcase their commitment to vocational education and training.

To learn more and to register as a partner, click here.

Science & Education for Society